“When the Going Gets Tough, the Tough Get Going!”

FREE SEMINAR:

Your business faces risks from various sources and this is even more so during the current economic climate. Experience proves that preventative action is far better than cure. Don't wait until something goes wrong - act now to ensure your business has protection in the areas it needs it most, such as:

1. Employees – both claims against the company and disaffected employees departing with your hard won customers.
2. Inadequate contractual arrangements with suppliers – are you locked into a fixed price contract for the long term?
3. Can you recover your goods if your customer goes bust having racked up a substantial debt with you?
4. What are your arrangements with business partners or co-shareholders, particularly those who are under performing or not coping with the pressures? Can you get rid of them? Can you prevent them from leaving and setting up in competition? Can you force them to sell?
5. Are you covered if your business partner dies or (under stress) suffers a breakdown or heart attack? Can you afford to buy them out? Are you jointly and severally liable on personal guarantees or bank loans with them?

Taylors Solicitors and HSBC have teamed up to host a presentation on a number of simple and cost effective steps which can be taken to minimise the exposure of your business and give it the protection it needs to trade confidently through the recession and come out on top!
